Group Show: Kamba Gallery Summer Exhibition 2013

Monday, July 01-Monday, July 02, 2013

Kamba Gallery is pleased to present a group exhibition of works featuring a selection of Kamba Gallery contemporary artists. The Kamba Gallery Summer Show will run from July 1st, 2013 – September 02, 2013. Five gallery artists will be featured in the show: Kiboko, Michael Soi, Ambrice Miller, Damilola Odusote and Leila Bibizadeh. Many of the works explore the idea of identity and cross cultural impact.

The show contrasts artist styles such as Kiboko and Damilola Odusote whose technique is highly illustrative against artists such as Ambrice Miller whose paintings have a feeling of classical execution. Leila Bibizadeh known for her wildlife portraits will have two striking black and white works which revolve around the problem of ivory poaching which is currently becoming a major problem in East Africa.

Michael Soi a permanent fixture on the African contemporary scene will also have two works in the show the Police Swoop and Koinange Street both works are a comment on the sex industry and the current political situation in Soi's native Nairobi.

"The Kamba Gallery Summer Show" will run through to September 02, 2013. Gallery hours are Monday – Saturday 10– 6:00, and by appointment. For additional information please contact Victoria Rogers, Tel: 0207 409 3070 Mobile: 07798533066 / 07861673838
